

Bennington Public Library Card Application

Anyone who lives, owns property, or has a business within the boundaries of Douglas County is eligible to receive a Bennington Public Library card without cost. Cards are also issued at no cost to students attending public or private schools in the Bennington School District, and employees of the Bennington Public School District and City of Bennington.

A mailing address of Bennington, Nebraska is not sufficient to determine eligibility for free privileges. The resident address of the applicant or the property/business owned by the applicant must be within Douglas County for free library privileges. Presently, funding for the Bennington Public Library is supported by the taxpayers of Douglas County only.

All applicants who wish full services must provide photo identification and current street address verification. A parent can show identification and address verification for his/her child.

Non-Douglas County residents

Anyone who does not live in Douglas County may purchase an annual (12-month) non-resident membership for $30, which entitles each member of a household to library privileges for a 12-month period. Each household member should be present to receive his/her library card.
